Do you Care About the Future of Informal Adult and Community Learning?

3rd October 2011, 10am – 12pm
Hotel Nelson, Prince of Wales Road, Norwich.
(opposite rail station)

The ECA is holding an Eastern Region meeting for its members, associated networks and interested parties to discuss and formulate responses to the current BIS consultation: -

New Challenges, New Chances: Next Steps in Implementing the Further Education Reform Programme

The meeting will provide a space for discussion of consultation questions, in particular the associated detailed consultation on Informal Adult and Community Learning, and a chance to swap experience and knowledge of past and current practice to help inform both the ECA and other responses to BIS before the October 21st deadline.

The meeting is free for all attendees. Tea and coffee will be available from 9.30am onwards for a 10am start. To book a space please email Susie on Susie.white@e-c-a.ac.uk or phone 01603 464937.
